The Marvin A. Drimer Foundation presents the Jewish Book Month Keynote Speaker David Frum

"US Foreign Policy and the Middle East"

The 2008 US election for president and Congress offers radical change to US policies in the Middle East. Voices questioning the US relationship with Israel have never been louder - at a time when radical forces are racing to acquire nuclear weapons. What will November's American vote mean for this vital region and the peace of the world?

David Frum, former speechwriter to President George W. Bush and foreign policy adviser to Republican presidential candidate Rudy Giuliani, is the author of the new book, COMEBACK: Conservatism That Can Win Again.

Introduced by L. Ian MacDonald, Editor-in-Chief of Policy Options, who writes regular columns on politics and policy for the Montreal Gazette and National Post, and is a frequent commentator for CTV, CPAC and CBC. He is also the co-author of three best-selling biographies.

Books and autographs available. Sponsored by the Marvin A. Drimer Foundation.
