The Paul Trepman Memorial Lecture

"Landscapes of Memory" with Prof. Ruth Klueger

Prof. Ruth Klueger reads from Still Alive: A Holocaust Girlhood Remembered, a memoir of her life in Nazi Vienna, her experience in the camps, in postwar Europe and New York. Her book has appeared in ten languages and won numerous awards. A discussion follows her lecture.

The author, a retired German Literature professor at the University of Irvine (California), received her Ph.D. from the University of Berkeley (California) and taught at Princeton and the University of Virginia.

Introduced by Dr. Karin Doerr, Concordia University. Books and autographs available. Reception to follow.

Main sponsor: Consulate General of the Federal Republic of Germany. Co-sponsored by the Paul Trepman Memorial Lecture Fund of the Jewish Public Library and of the Montreal Holocaust Memorial Centre, the Montreal Goethe-Institut, and the Canadian Centre for German and European Studies.
