

Jewish Book
Month 2015

The Rosalind Goodman Cultural Institute

An Evening with Hanoch Teller “HEROIC CHILDREN” Untold Stories of the Unconquerable

Wednesday
October 28, 2015
7:30 p.m.

Segal Centre for Performing Arts | The Studio
5170 Côte Ste-Catherine
Free admission
Info: (514) 345-2627 ext. 3017
Reception

Heroic Children is an uplifting and motivational study of hope. The reader will never experience struggles as monumental as those faced by the nine children profiled in this extraordinary book, yet he/she will certainly be profoundly moved by the challenges, setbacks and periods of abject despair that played out in their lives. The experiences of these children will serve as inspiration for if they, of such tender years, were able to heal and flourish in the wake of the unimaginable, then surely the reader will be able to engage with the obstacles in their own lives – and summon the strength to triumph.

Rabbi Hanoch Teller, who has been guiding in Yad Vashem for three decades, and teaching about the Holocaust for nearly as long, sought a way to teach the history of the Holocaust in a compelling and riveting way, interesting even those not interested.

Book sale and signing.

Hosted by Chaya and Lorne Lieberman.

Doors open 30 minutes prior to the event.
Free parking at the YM-YWHA.