From the New York Times bestselling author of The Dovekeepers and The Museum of Extraordinary Things, a forbidden love story set in the tropical island of St. Thomas about the extraordinary woman who gave birth to painter Camille Pissarro – the Father of Impressionism.

Beloved author Alice Hoffman will share her insights into this enthralling story, which is at the heart of her new novel The Marriage of Opposites, and her decades-long career as a bestselling novelist.

Alice Hoffman has been called “America’s literary heir to the Brothers Grimm” and her luminous and remarkable “fables of the everyday” have enchanted readers since the publication of her first novel, Property Of, in 1977. More than 30 years later, with numerous acclaimed and best-selling novels (as well as two short story collections and many books for young adults), Hoffman continues to seduce readers into her vividly imagined world.

Introduced by Nancy Cummings Gold, JPL Friend, generous supporter, and daughter of Norma Cummings z”l, founder of the JPL Friends of the Library.
